HORSEBACK RIDING
NATURAL MINERAL HOT SPRINGS POOL

BAR M RANCH

AT BINGHAM HOT SPRINGS

Home-style Hospitality in a Historic Dude Ranch Getaway

Experience the Wonders of the Old West

The Ranch

Leave the world behind and enter the magic of the Bar M. Since 1864, when weary stagecoach travelers stopped here to rest, guests have been escaping their everyday lives and retreating to the scenic beauty of the ranch, tucked away in eastern Oregon's Blue Mountains.

With the Umatilla River winding through the 3,000 acre property and historic ranch buildings surrounded by stately pine and fir trees, your family will forget about cell phones and television. Your days will be replaced with riding horses through wide-open spaces, swimming in a natural mineral hot springs pool, and savoring delicious home-cooked meals.

"We enjoyed every minute of our stay – superb meals, horses, trails, views and of course the people!"

- Arja Joosten - Geldermalsen, Holland

Horseback Riding

Whether you're a beginner or an experienced rider, our knowledgeable wranglers will match you with the right horse from our large herd. During your visit it will be yours to groom, saddle, ride and treat as your very own.

In our summer season, saddle up twice a day for one and two hour rides guided by our wranglers.

Ride in the arena, splash through the river, or follow the mountain trails to breathtaking views. Each week, go on an adventurous all-day ride with lunch packed in your saddlebags, and an overnight camp-out by the river.

Natural Mineral Springs Swimming Pool & Hot Tub

For over a century people have come to swim and soak in the natural waters of Bingham Hot Springs. Imagine a swimming pool without chemicals, fed by natural mineral hot springs bubbling right out of the mountain. The pool maintains a soothing temperature of 86 degrees, with a separate hot tub kept even warmer. Picture yourself relaxing in the pool next to the clear, flowing river, absorbing the peace and beauty of the mountains all around you.

Activities

When you're not riding or taking a swim, you'll find plenty to do at the Bar M. Our log recreation barn offers basketball and volleyball. You can also try your hand at western dance and archery. Kids will enjoy getting up close and personal with a variety of animals in our critter corral.

The lush lawn offers plenty of space for horseshoes, badminton and tetherball, as well as a playground. You'll feel like you can almost touch the sky on the sturdy wooden swing hanging between two towering fir trees.

With three miles of the Umatilla River flowing through the property, you can fish for native trout, catch and release.

For keepers, try our stocked trout pond.

Hikers and photographers can explore the ranch amid colorful wildflowers in the spring, changing leaves in the fall and a variety of wildlife year round. Marvel at the courage of stagecoach travelers and the stamina of the horses as you view the stagecoach ruts etched deeply into a steep ridge on the mountain slope.

If you're used to city living, it's probably been a while since you've seen a sky lit up with stars. That comes with the territory at the Bar M. Join guests and wranglers around the flickering flames of a campfire, roast your own marshmallows for s'mores, tell some stories, and gaze up at the star soaked sky.

And of course, if it's just relaxing you're after, take a book and pull up a chair on the deck or lay under a shady tree and listen to the tranquil sounds of the nearby river.

"Relaxing, comfortable and beautiful – all in one!"

- Margo & Jim Ryan - Cork, Ireland

Lodging

The rustic, hand-hewn log Ranch House is rich in history. Built in 1864, it was used as a stagecoach stop during the Civil War period. The large house features a great room with a fireplace, a cozy dining hall, and an expansive deck overlooking a stream. An adjoining recreation room is just the right spot for games, puzzles and ping pong. The Ranch House has eight rooms upstairs, with three sparkling clean family-style bathrooms. Each guest room offers rustic yet comfortable furnishings, in keeping with the western flavor of the Ranch.

If you prefer more privacy, the Bunk House offers small, two and three-room suites with private baths, perfect for families. You can also choose one of our three quaint cabins. You'll feel right at home wherever you stay on the Ranch!

"My two children had so much fun that on the way back to our home town they already wanted to start planning our next visit to the ranch."

- Dottie Sherman, Ceres, California

The Dinner Bell

At the Bar M Ranch, we take all the fuss out of vacation meals. Listen for the dinner bell, show up in your comfy jeans and enjoy home-cooked, all-you-can-eat, family style meals in our informal dining room.

Start the morning with a hearty ranch breakfast, then after your morning activities, we'll ring the bell again to call you in for a scrumptious lunch. At the end of your fun-filled afternoon, a delicious dinner is waiting to satisfy the appetite you've earned. Don't forget to leave room for our irresistible, belt-bustin' desserts!

From homemade pies, breads and jams to mouth-watering barbeques and our bottomless cookie jar, guests tell us the food is one of the best things about the Bar M!
